2 Our services

- A personal document list for your case and a manual review of every scan before anything is submitted.
- Advice on binational special cases and on documents from third countries.
- The application to Familieretshuset (the Danish Agency of Family Law) on your behalf, including the authority fee of DKK 2,100 (about €281), which we pass on 1:1.
- Communication with the authority until approval.
- Booking your wedding date in the municipality of your choice; if it has no suitable date, one change of municipality after the approval is included.
- A personal contact via WhatsApp, Mon–Sun 8 am–10 pm (Swiss time).

3 Not included

- Apostilles, legalisations and certified translations of your own documents. You obtain them yourselves; we tell you exactly which ones you need.
- The apostille on the Danish marriage certificate. You can add it as the Apostille Service for €149.99.
- Travel, accommodation and costs on site, and any municipal fee for a ceremony outside the town hall.

4 Fixed price and payment

Complete · Fully guided including the authority fee of DKK 2,100 (about €281)	€649.99
Total fixed price	€649.99

Payment: in full at booking, by card via Stripe.

This is a fixed price: there are no additional charges for the services above.

5 What we promise you in writing

100 % manually reviewed	Every scan and every application is reviewed by a person before we submit it to the authority.
Mon–Sun 8 am–10 pm	Reachable in person via WhatsApp (Swiss time). Usually an answer within a few hours, at the latest within 24 hours.
*3–6 weeks	With complete documents you are usually married within 3–6 weeks, depending on the municipality.

* Guide value, not a guarantee. Familieretshuset currently decides complete applications mostly within about five working days; the municipality allocates the wedding date. The decisions rest solely with the Danish authorities (terms, section 5).

6 Your part

- Complete and truthful information and valid original documents.
- Prompt answers to the authority's questions, which we pass on to you.
- The power of attorney for Familieretshuset, which you fill in and sign in the customer portal.
- Your journey and your personal attendance at the ceremony; you are married by the Danish municipality.

7 Right of withdrawal

You may withdraw from this contract within 14 days of its conclusion without giving any reason. For consumers in the EU this is a statutory right; we grant it voluntarily by contract to customers in Switzerland. You can withdraw by email to info@wedding-denmark.com or online at wedding-denmark.com/en/vertrag-widerrufen.

If you asked us to start right away, we refund all payments on withdrawal less the share for services already provided. An authority fee already submitted to Familieretshuset can only be refunded by the authority. All details are in the right-of-withdrawal notice (annex 2).

8 Conclusion and components of the contract

The contract is concluded online: with your booking and our order confirmation after receipt of payment (terms, section 2). No signature is needed.

It consists of this contract, our general terms and conditions (as of October 2026, annex 1) and the right-of-withdrawal notice (annex 2). Swiss law applies; mandatory consumer protection rules of your country of residence remain unaffected (terms, section 7).

The contract language is German. This translation is for your convenience; the German version is legally binding.
